“ My sincerest condolences to all the family. It has been years since I have seen Alice, but I would keep up on how she was doing through social media when she lived with her daughter, Bernadette. What I do remember is she was always friendly and would always acknowledge me and talk with me. She would always ask for her uncle (my dad) and always had a beautiful smile to share with me. May she Rest In Peace. Sincerely, Kathie Lucero Salgado (Esequiel's daughter).
