“ I meet ARNOLD when I moved to San Acacio, Colorado in July 04, 2004. He was the Post Master at the San Luis location. I truly enjoyed talking to ARNOLD when I got my mail. He worked there for a short time after I moved to San Acacio. I saw him when he worked at the Alta Gas Station in Alamosa. He was so cool. I guess maybe because he was a VIETNAM VETERAN !!! It was a PRIVILEGE to know and talk to this VIETNAM VETERAN (VIETNAM VETERANS always had a special place in my heart for them). I remember telling him he looked like a LEPRECHAUN to me !!! We had a little laugh !!! I told him that was a good IDENTITY !!! Just saw him a few time in Alamosa !!! Real sad when I saw his obituary in the Free Press !!! He is a GREAT GUY !!!

“ It was great seeing Arnold two years ago when I went to Colorado for the Cordova family reunion organized by our mutual cousin, Charlene Manchego Simms. I enjoyed visiting with him at Mo's in Garcia. We had a nice conversation and joked around. It hurts to know that it would be the last time I would see my dear cousin alive. Rest In Peace and thank you for your service to our nation. Max Martinez, San Juan Bautista, California
