“ Aunt Cora was the younger sister of my Father, Lucas Esquibel. My Husband, my Brother, Charles and his wife, Donna, my Cousin Arlene and her Husband Duane Williams stopped by to see Aunt Cora about three summers ago. My cousin Arlene was visiting from Utah and wanted to connect with her Colorado family. We visited our great Aunt Della Manzanares who is close to 100 years old and then took a drive down the road to see Aunt Cora. I had not seen her in years! She had beautiful blue eyes!

My Father has one sibling left, his brother Jose who lives here in Pueblo with his wife Lupe. He is around 85 years old and homebound. My Sister, Jane, and I visited him often prior to Covid.

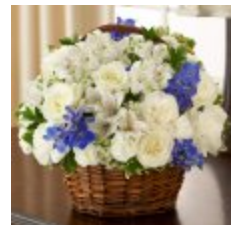

My heartfelt condolences to Aunt Cora's family. May she rest in peace.
