

Derrion Xavier Torrez

July 16, 2004 - July 30, 2023

DERRION was born July 16th, 2004 to Matthew and Jamie. DERRION was born a man with his own plan. DERRION had just graduated from Alamosa High School. He was currently employed with Costilla Road and Bridge who we would like to thank District 1 for accepting his as family. He had a goal of obtaining his Cdl, moving into his first apartment and working on his car he just purchased. DERRION enjoyed video games, listening to music and riding his motorcycle. He was a huge sports fan. Survivors include his parents Matthew Torrez, Jamie Lynn Trujillo and his step father Kevin May "K Dawg". Kevin took the time to teach DERRION sports and was a great father figure. Grandfather James Trujillo and Grandmother Shierly Kelly. Derrion's siblings include sisters Alyssa, Rayanna, Sophie and Gianna. Brothers Anton, and A.J. Uncles Mario Torrez and his special Uncle Shadoe and Moriah who cared for DERRION and Freddie DeHererra. His Auntie Laura Amaya and Uncle Tammy and Lawerance Pacheco who kindly took DERRION in and tried to guide him to his future path. His much adored "Grandma Tillie" and numerous other family members. DERRION will be welcomed home with open arms by his late Grandparents Luis "Noofy" and Gayle Amaya. A.J Torrez and his special beloved great grandparents Joe and Julia Trujillo and Roger Vigil. A special thanks to all his teachers, and those who had helped Derrion unto the right path. They say if you love something let it go. If it comes back it's yours to keep. If not it never was. Your free son we will always and forever love you "D".

Cremation was chosen and a Celebration of Derrion's Life will be held on Saturday, August 5, 2023 at 9:30 AM at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Alamosa.
