Born on October 8, 1937 in Alamosa, Co., beloved son of Juan & Eliza Lobato, Sandoval. Eddie graduated from Alamosa High School, class of 1957. Eddie participated in Football, Track, Choir, A Club, & Spanish Club. Eddie attended Adams State College from 1957-1959 and was a member of both Band and Choir. In 1959, he toured 5 States with ASC Choir and went to The Rose Bowl. Eddie served in the Army National Guard from 1957-1963, then in the reserves 1967-1968.

Eddie was known in the community as a hard worker. He started his employment at a young age with The Rocky Mountain News, followed by Sales for Jewel Tea Company. He then worked for Alamosa Community Hospital as an Orderly. He was then employed by Cal Gas for many years delivering propane. He also owned and operated Mac's Pool Hall. His customers loved coming in for their daily fix of a great hot dog and his famous hot sauce. Eddie also leased The Smoke House and because of his love for dancing & music, he would host weekly Disco nights. Eddie returned to Cal Gas, where he made many friends across the Valley. After retirement, Eddie did not like to be idle, so he found employment at Wal-Mart, where he worked for many years in maintenance and retired in Jan. 2019.

When he was younger, he sponsored a Woman's Softball League. He also enjoyed bowling, cross word puzzles, watching old Westerns and his favorite tv show Blue Bloods. He served countless Honor Guards, rendering honors for many fallen heroes. Eddie served as a Trustee for the American Legion as well as many leadership roles.
