My mom and dad Ramona and Robert Ortiz loved your Elia. Dad would joke with her husband and my mom and she would talk for hours and laugh and just enjoy her company! Such treasured friends year ago.

May sweet and precious memories comfort you at this time! Elia's gentle nature and kindness will always be acknowledged and she always had a special dessert or cookies for us when we would visit. I remember her living room was textured with a sponge and I thought that was the coolest thing. God bless you today and know that your parents and my parents must be having a great time in Heaven. Carry on her wonderful hospitality tradition.
