Emilio humbly and honorably served in the Colorado Army National Guard for 14 years. "Miley" as many called him didn't know a stranger and you didn't have to guess what he was thinking. Emilio may best be remembered for his 31-year career with AmeriGas providing exceptional service in the San Luis Valley and Northern New Mexico or cruising his classic Plymouth GTX that he and Pat bought new in 1968. More importantly, Emilio will be remembered for the love of family, his bride Pat and his three girls. There was nothing Emilio wouldn't do for his girls..... absolutely nothing. Rest in Peace Dad.
