“ Eva was a wonder and very funny lady. She always had a bright smile and was cheerful. I lovingly joked with her that I was her favorite nurse and that's what she called "My Favorite Nurse". She will be missed by many of us who adored her! Rest in peace Eva!

While I did not have the privilege of knowing Eva personally, I feel I knew her spirit through her devoted daughter, Shirley and DC. Shirley's daily visits and the pure, inspirational love she poured into caring for her mother until she was 91. A beautiful testament to the bond they shared. A daughter's love like that is only built on the foundation of a wonderful mother. Eva was deeply loved, and her legacy lives on through that beautiful devotion.
