“ Mom and Aunt Bernadette, I'm very sorry for the loss of Uncle Freddie. My life has been blessed because of him and I'm forever grateful for what he meant to me all these years and thankful I was able to spend time with him over many years and especially recently. He is what family is all about - and I say this in the present tense because he will always be in my heart. We had such great talks and I was very happy when he stayed with me at my house when there was a family reunion in town and two years ago when I went to Antonito and we went to San Luis for the festival there, as well as the time I spent Christmas with him and cooked menudo (with pigs feet) for him. We had such fun times together and he shared so much with me. I look forward to seeing him again. You are both in my thoughts and prayers. I too lost my brother Freddie recently so I know the pain and sorrow of losing a sibling. He was and will always be my favorite Uncle. I thank God for the gift of Uncle Freddie. May he rest in the peace of Our Lord and Savior in the company of Our Holy Mother and the saints and angels and all our loved ones who have gone before us. Love you Uncle Freddie!
