

Gabino Balderrama-Chavez Jr.

January 31, 2004 - September 29, 2022

Alamosa resident Gabino Balderrama-Chavez Jr. was called home far too soon at the young age of 18. His life began on January 31, 2004. Gabino was born in Colorado Springs, Colorado, the beloved son of Veronica Balderrama. Gabino was a hard worker, he loved to be outdoors, working and doing anything to keep himself busy. He worked most of the time doing construction, but his passion and greatest joy came from working at his grandparents ranch that he grew up on. He was a gym rat and fitness guru, He loved working out. Gabino also liked animals, especially dogs. He will be remembered for being a jokester and his ornery, spunky personality. Gabino's time here with us was not long enough, but the memories and love he left with his family and friends will last a lifetime.

He will live on through his grandparents who raise him Irma and Jose Balderrama of Alamosa, CO; sisters Jacklyn Torres (Gabriel Galindo) of Santa Fe, NM; Carina Balderrama of Santa Fe, NM; Araceli Torres of Alamosa, CO; brothers Juan Luis Balderrama, Giovanni Chavez both of Alamosa, CO; uncles Jesus Manuel Balderrama, Jose Luis Balderrama Jr., Luis Felipe (Diana) Balderrama, girlfriend Maria Escobedo of Denver, CO. He is also survived by numerous other extended family members and friends.

Gabino was preceded in death by his mother Veronica Balderrama as well as his great-grandparents.

Cremation was chosen and services will be held on New Mexico at a later date. To leave online condolences please visit romerofuneralhomes.com. The care of arrangements has been entrusted to Romero Funeral Home of Alamosa.
