

Gloria R. Segura

April 10, 1955 - November 4, 2022

It is with heavy hearts we announce the passing of our Queen. Gloria was born April, 10 1955 to Elias P. Miera Sr. and Senaida Miera. She grew up with lots of family and friends creating the most awesome childhood memories! It was her mischievous and daring ways that set her apart and got everyone's attention, not to mention her beauty! She met her soul mate on September 7, 1972. They began to date and fell in love. She graduated in 1974 and married on August 30, 1975. Their first son Antonio Jr. was born in 1976 and second son Timothy followed in 1979. Their youngest son Andrew was born in 1986. Gloria dedicated her life to the Lord at an alter call in 1986. This began the life she lived and loved. She was passionate and faithful to her Lord and she showed it in everything she did. She served her husband and sons in a way that can't be compared! She began to sing in the church Abundant Life Christian Fellowship along with her brother Elias Jr. and sister Berlinda. This is where she was known for her powerful and amazing voice! As her sons grew up she began to work but none came close to the job she had at the Ancianos. She had a special spot in her heart for every viejito and viejita that attended. Nothing gave her more joy than when her grandchildren began to arrive. Her most treasured memories was when she held each one and prayed over them. She will definitely be remembered by her laughter and the joy she brought to others. It was her story telling and imitations that made everyone laugh! Gloria was faithful to her Lord especially through every trial. Gloria joined her Heavenly Father on November 4, 2022, surrounded by her loved ones.

She is preceded in death by her sister Rita, grandmother Sarita and her parents Elias and Senaida Miera.

She is survived by her loving husband Antonio Sr. Her three sons Antonio Jr. (Amanda), Timothy (Santana), Andrew (Raeanne). Eleven grandchildren Anika (Zac), Amorette (Zack), Aliana, James, Andrew Jr, Matthias, Dominic, Jazmine, Aliza, Aidan and Janessa. Two great grandchildren Serina and Leo James.
