“ I remember as a young girl Isaac and I woke up early had breakfast and headed out bright and early to go get firewood it was a long hard day but we sat on a log enjoyed our lunch my mom had packed us and we finished the day proud . Then after dinner he sat down with me and was teaching me the basics on the guitar. Our favorite song " Hey baby que paso thought i was your only vato" .. i also remember as a teenager staying with my mom and Isaac in New Mexico in a trailer as they were building a rehab center Isaac and my mom teaching me how to warm up ALOT of water to have a bath in what I think was a big metal trough. We roughed it but lots of memories were made.. I remember meeting his daughter Darlene I think she was listening and singing a "Prince" song i thought she was the most prettiest girl ever. And Joe and squanto I remember them treating us kids so good just as we were one of the family. I've kept in touch with Isaac over the years and ill always remember him calling me 5 years ago when my son passed away his voice so gentle and loving with his Colorado accent. May you rest in beautiful peace Isaac thank you for being a positive role model in our lives and thank you for always loving us and our mom.
