“ I have known Jerry since we were both in grade school. I always admired his toughness and attitude on the sports field along with his leadership. He enjoyed life and had a smile whenever we met. A good man who left us too early.

“ May the memories of a life well lived bring comfort and peace to Jerry's family, he was one of the best! A good friend to our family, especially to my Pops who thought the world of Jerry, and to my brother James who thought of Jerry as his brother. I will always remember his positive outlook on life, willingness to help others as well as his strong faith.
