“ To the Medina Family:

I am very sad to hear that Jerry passed away. Please know that you are in my prayers, may God comfort you and give you strength and peace during this difficult time.

Jerry is my cousin; his mother was my mother's sister. Not many know that Jerry was instrumental in my coming to know the Lord. My mom and I went to see my grandmother in the hospital in Monte Vista just before she passed away. We stayed at my Tia Santana's home until her funeral. While I was there Jerry came home to recover from surgery.

I don't even remember how the conversation got started but I do remember asking him how he knew God was real? I was searching but I had no concept of how to find out for sure if God was real. Jerry took the time to share scripture with me about how God loved us so much he sent his only Son Jesus to die for our sins so that we could become children of God. I know he prayed for me because he knew only God could reveal Himself and the truth about His plan for salvation.

Not long after I returned to Denver, God showed me the truth and how much He loved me, I felt so bad for having sinned against God, he forgave my sins and saved my soul.

When Jerry found out, he said "that's a miracle!" And he was right, not only because it seemed like I would never accept the truth, but because every soul is precious to God. The Bible says... "In the same way, there is joy in the presence of God's angels when even one sinner repents." Luke 15:10

I am forever grateful to God for him and I know Jerry is precious to God.

"Blessed are those who mourn for they will be comforted." Matthew 5:4

“ I am very sorry to hear of Jerry's passing. As always, we know he is in a better place.
Jerry and I are first cousins. Our mothers were sisters. I didn't grow up with him, but a few years ago, I wanted for us to get to know each other, so we took a trip to Chama ,New Mexico to the Santaurio. We also stopped and visit our cousin Fermina.
Mission accomplished, from that day on we became friends. He was funny, and such a nice mellow guy. I am so sad that he has left us. I would text him now and than. He was a man of few words, and would give me some short replies. I thank him for being not only my cousin, but my friend. God Bless his family. God will give you the strength you need. Peace helen

“ In 1981 I moved - from the big city, to MV, to work at the radio station. Jerry was one of the first people I met at the station. He was so nice and friendly and welcoming to the new kid.

Sorry to hear of his passing, he was a good man.
