“ Son I will never get over losing you, I remember holding your hand talking with you, explain to you if you were tired of being in pain ,hurting I was ok with you going with God even though those words killed me inside ,I seen you fight like a champ till the very end, I also seen your struggle,as I held on to your hand never wanting to let go, I can still hear my words,still feel the pain as I told you son I brought you into this world and I'm staying right here with you when you take your last breath,as I looked up I seen the tears coming down your face,I walked up to you wiped those tears for the last time as I gave you one last kiss,knowing that my world was about to change forever, you took a piece of me with you,I'll never be the same again ,for I was a mother of 3 and losing my middle child was the most devastating, heartbreaking situation I had to face, I was in shock for those next few weeks ,I didn't want to except the fact that my boy was gone,the one who knew when I was hurting, the one who always had to make me smile telling me I was loved and always made sure to thank me every day for all I did for you, your siblings,it hadn't been easy,I still can't believe we lost you, I haven't grieved like I should cuz a part of me feels if I do ,I'll lose you forever, I know your my Guardian Angel,and will always have his girls back,life isn't fair at all, and each night I regret taking you for granted and would give my life just to have you back here with us,it's hard to go on with our missing puzzle ,our glue that held us all together,I will miss you forever,never let you be forgotten,and love you endlessly son, till my last breath and I know you'll be at those pearly Gates with open arms ,waiting for your girl and I'll give you the biggest hug,kiss and be at peace cuz I'll be with my son💙💙🙏🙏

“ Brootherrrr!! I miss you so much and I’m so lost without you here. You were my best friend and rock you always knew how to keep me up. I feel I let you down in so many ways and I just don’t know how to live life and be me when a huge part of me is missing.

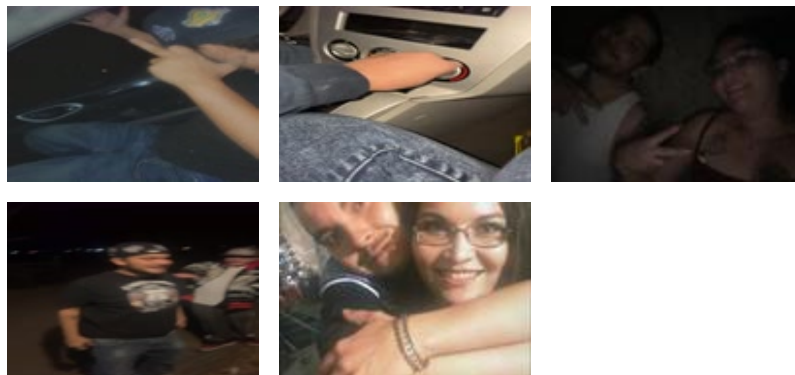

You deserved so much more from life yet you always knew how to make everyone laugh and talk your shit. lol one of the last messages you sent me was “ I miss laughing at you foo”... Although it was hard living at the hospital with you we I miss it dearly. I’ve stayed true to the last words I told you and I carry you with me every single day.

I love when someone comments on my necklace and I get to say thank you it’s my brother and share a quick memory of you. I won’t ever forget you and I won’t ever let your memory die.

I would give anything to have you here and hear you laughing at me, give you a hug and have you on some nature shit. Our adventures will always be my favorite. Thank you for always loving me and having my back. I can’t wait to get there and see you again , I know you’re watching over us but I miss laughing at you fool!!

I wish I could’ve saved you, losing you proved to me only the good die young.

You were an amazing human

“ Thank you for being such an amazing, kind, and caring person in my life. I could always depend on you no matter what. I know you'll be watching over us all from up above until we meet again ❤️

... empty because he's not here or our hearts can be filled with the love we shared. We can remember only that he's gone or we can cherish his memory and let it live on. We can cry and close our minds, be empty, and turn our backs, or we can do what he would want: smile,

“ I miss you so much son and love you forever, letting you go was the hardest decision I had to make, but I didn't want you to be suffering and in pain anymore so I did it for you. A piece of me went with you and our family now has a missing piece, our glue, may you rest in peace son , you'll always be with me and I know you wouldn't want me to be in pain, sad but I will be without you, heaven gained a beautiful, loving young man, you're my everything and I love you more than life itself
