

Kevin S. Gray

December 16, 1977 - February 27, 2023

Conejos resident Kevin Gray was born December 16, 1977 in La Jara, Colorado to Mitchell and Sandra Gray. Kevin was raised in Fox Creek where he learned to work hard and play harder. He married his wife Stephanie on January 1st, 2000. He spent most of his time enjoying the outdoors and teaching his children many useful skills. He loved hunting, fishing, boating, snowmobiling, and anything to do with the mountains. He was the most hard-working man and touched the lives of all those that he worked with. He was everyone's friend, and his impact on the community will always be felt. Kevin is survived by his wife Stephanie of the family home, his son Kevin (Kaitlyn), his daughter Deedra (Chris), and his granddaughter Hadley. He is also survived by his mother Sandra Gray and his siblings; Christina (Steve) Sutherland, Matthew Gray, Adam (Sabrina) Gray, Andrew (Ashley) Gray, Jason Gray, and Danielle (Aaron) Sandoval, along with many nieces, nephews, and friends. He is preceded in death by his father Mitchell Gray, his sister Lisa Gray, and his mother-in-law LuAnn Gallegos. Kevin passed away February 27th 2023 doing one of the many things he loved, snowmobiling. We didn't realize we were making memories; we just know we were having fun. “ My deepest condolences to the Gray families. The sudden passing of Kevin was very shocking. I met Kevin in 2007 at the Questa mine. Kevin was a hard worker but his witty personality was always on display. He made working at the mine fun and I still have on display Kevin’s metal work that he made for me. May the memories of Kevin’s personality and talents soften the hurt during these times.
