Krisann, I always saw you happy, smiling or laughing and that is how I will remember you. Your attitude was contagious and you always made me feel so good too. I miss your e-mails filling me in on how you were and what you were up to. I will especially miss how you were so concerned about me, even though you were going through a rough time yourself. Rest in peace my good friend. I will always remember you with love. I will miss you.
