

Krystal Klahn

October 8, 1985 - July 7, 2025

Krystal Minia Klahn was born on October 8, 1985, in Denver, Colorado, to the late James Edward Klahn and Roxanne Nana Gonzales Klahn. She gained her angel wings at the young age of 39 on July 1, 2025, at Memorial Hospital in Colorado Springs, Colorado, surrounded by her loving family.

Krystal was a vibrant soul with a passion for creativity. She enjoyed painting, working on puzzles, and drawing. She had a special fondness for her beloved 2004 yellow Mustang. Krystal had a remarkable ability to light up a room with her sense of humor and will be remembered for the joy she brought to her family, friends, and coworkers. She is now reunited with her twin sister, Krystie, who passed away in January 2019.

Krystal is survived by her mother, Roxanne Klahn; her sister, Kimberly, and her husband, Demetrius Rael; her niece, Haylee Rose Duran; and her nephews, Thomas Anthony Duran and Matthew Gonzalez. She is preceded in death by her father, James Edward Klahn, her twin sister, Krystie Mae Klahn, and her grandparents.

In respect for her wishes, cremation has been chosen by the family. Services will be held at a later date. To leave online condolences, please visit romerofuneralhome.com. Care of arrangements has been entrusted to Romero Valley Funeral Home of Alamosa.
