“ Larry was one of the good guys, it was a pleasure to know him and work with him, even when he was a supervisor he was always willing to help out his crew. That is the kind of guy Larry was and is, someone who was always there for you when you needed him. He will be missed by so many lives he touched with his kindness, friendship and personality. I am thankful that I got to know you Larry, fond memories will be cherished. Rest in peace Larry.

My favorite one is when we hitched hiked to a rolling stone concert! We had a blast! We had fun and we created a life and my only regrets is I didn't keep you in my life! “ Growing up I always heard my dad (stan) stories of him and his best friend (brother) Larry. This is tragic, the world lost a gentle giant. May the lord bring comfort to the family of Larry. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
