“ My nephew Lawrence Trujillo, was a very kind and very respectful person. I have many memories of him. When he was little, he was an adorable baby, so cute and healthy and full of life. When he was little he loved going to visit his Grandparents in San Pablo and he would always ask his Grandma Anita for some watermelon. I will always remember his beautiful smile. aunt Mary Archuleta

Lawrence will always be remembered in our hearts. He was such a lovable, easy-going, happy kid that was so full of life. My favorite memories of him are when he would visit his grandparents' farm and how much he loved them. Rest In Peace. Love Aunt Elsie
