

Lorenzo Antonio Pacheco

May 1, 1981 - August 26, 2021

Lorenzo Antonio Pacheco, 40, was born on May 1, 1981, in Alamosa the first born child of Richard and Marie Pacheco, and passed away on August 26, 2021. While his time on earth was short, his spirit and the impact he had on others will live on forever.

An avid sports fan, Lorenzo knew and could recount statistics, wins, losses and the best players for football, basketball, and other sports. His early support of the Las Vegas Raiders never faltered. Sunday dinners at his father's home with his daughter, sister, brother-in-law, nieces, nephew, and paternal grandmother, were one of the things he always looked forward to and enjoyed immensely. Growing up on the Forbes Trinchera Ranch instilled a love for the outdoors and a keen appreciation of wildlife.

Lorenzo graduated from Sierra Grande High School. He attended Adams State University while at the same time raising his beloved daughter as a single parent, and working in various construction projects with his father. The elderly held a special place in his heart, and he especially enjoyed remodeling their homes to ensure that any disability or accommodation was taken care of. He recently worked at the District Attorney's office.

Lorenzo is survived by his daughter, Victoria Pacheco, step-daughters Jannelle Flores and Genna Aguilar both of Alamosa, CO; his father, Richard Pacheco from Fort Garland, CO, his sister, Ana Pacheco-Sarmiento, brother-in-law Nicolas Sarmiento, nieces Mariza, Olivia, and Eliana, and nephew Antonio, all from Alamosa. He is also survived by his paternal grandmother, Anna Maria Pacheco from Blanca, CO, as well as numerous uncles, aunts, God children, cousins, and friends.

He is preceded in death by his beloved mother Marie Pacheco, his maternal great grandmother, Sara Salas, his maternal grandmother, Della Gallegos, and his paternal grandfather Ruben Pacheco.

“ Richard, Ana, and Nicky...I pray that you all will find the peace and strength you need for this heartbreak. Lorenzo was one of a kind. 😊. Just a few weeks ago, he and I were harassing Adrian about his grammar in a Facebook post. I'm so sorry for your loss and your grief. You remain in my daily prayers.

“ Zo, You Leave us with our hearts heavy. So hard to say goodbye. It will not be the same driving up and you walking across the street to welcome us home. Such a great person family relative, and friend always great for favors, would never say no to anyone such a good heart .But you leave us Victoria and through her we see you. What a wonderful Father you brought her up to be. We will pray that all the love and memories surround your family with strength, peace All the days ahead. We love you Ron Sarah Trujillo and family

“ I am heartbroken and send my sympathy and prayers to Lorenzo's family. I will make a donation in his honor to the repair of the SdC Church roof and to the Sierra Grande Volleyball team in his honor. A good friend of my son, he will always be in our memories. May our continued prayers give strength to his Dad.

“ Lorenzo you will be missed immensely. Even though we didn't see each other often

You held a special place in our hearts. We have a lot of special memories of you growing up. All the vacations we all took together with your parents and our kids. You and sister and your parents weren't only our friends you were family. Rest In Peace Lorenzo. We love you!

“ I met Lorenzo in 2007, He is my husbands best friend which in turn is now my good friend/brother. I right away felt comfortable and welcomed by him. We joked around as if we were siblings, When Victoria was born I remember watching him interact with her and seeing the love in his eyes for her. He never stopped that love for her and all of us.

As I got to know him more I realized he was very passionate about a lot of important things. Like the justice system, helping the elderly, being a voice for people who could'nt speak for themselves, fighting for his friends, the raiders and most of all just being there when we needed a shoulder to cry on or a laugh.

Zo's heart and legacy will live on in all of us.

Every single person who he came in contact with was touched in some way or another. I will cherish all of the memories, talks, smiles and tears we shared.

Rest In Peace Brother- I hope you feel our love.
