“ Lydia was my school best friend and we had some really good times together, we were together every day, I will always remember our sleep overs and racing on our 4 wheelers our endless conversations on the phone, I will always be sorry that we went our separate ways and lost contact for many years, my parents loved you as their own daughter who wouldn't? You were always happy and in great spirits. I'm so grateful we got to talk one last time before you left to be with the Lord. I know your mom was waiting to take you home I can only imagine how that reunion went. May God bless you my sis, and your family during this very sad and tragic loss. Like I said to Lydia, she did not deserve this she had so much to live for, she was the backbone of her family and I know they are truly devastated and lost. My sincere condolences to the Dominguez/ Martinez family.
