Mary Evelyn Santistevan, Zapata, Madrid Born December 24, 1954

Passed February 11, 2023

Mary was a retired school bus driver. She enjoyed picking up and dropping off all of her school bus children. Mary was a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, sister and most of all friend. Everyone who was part of this wonderful woman's life knew what an exceptional person she really was. She had a beautiful soul, a heart of gold and always a smile on her face. Mary was a very caring person always there to lend a hand or a little support to family or friend, whatever the time, situation, or circumstance, she was there. Her door and arms always open with a welcoming smile, a place where you could go watch a football game or movie, have a meal, a good laugh or a shoulder to cry on, she always lent an ear to listen to everyone's story. That was Mary, always there for everyone no matter what.
