“ *Patt was a former resident of Los Alamos & a classmate & friend of my brother's. In recent years a group of us Hilltoppers connected with Patt on Facebook. We enjoyed her weekly stories that she wrote for the Valley Courier. We loved her stories. They were thought provoking, funny & informative. I will miss her immensely. “ What a great loss to you of Patt! My heart goes out to all of you. She was a cracker-jack person and fantastic writer! I have never met her in person, but we have corresponded by e-mail during the devastating time of Dimas Chavez loss of his leg. We got to know each other and each would have liked to meet. She thought she might come to Santa Fe sometime, but didn't make it after we began talking. This is the first time I have seen a picture of her and she is really a beauty! We had fun with words, Patt and I, and I think we appreciated each other. I am so very sorry she has left us. I hope to follow her before too much longer. I'm 87 years old, so it's time and I'm tired.

To Patt's family - while I have never met any of you please know that I know all about each of you from Patt. We communicated for many years and never held back on our comments, good or bad, as we had NO secrets. I have followed Patt's journey for many years and fully aware of all her ups and downs of which she had many. Now she is at peace with herself and at a level she so richly deserves. Take care my friend, take a deep breath and enjoy your new surroundings. Dimas Chavez

Patt and her family lived across Urban Park from us in Los Alamos. She was a little older than I and sort of an idol of mine. My sister was in the same class as Patt's sister, Mickey. Through the years I wondered about the Morgan girls and was delighted to find Patt on Facebook. She shared her weekly articles written for the Valley Courier. They were the highlight of my week. I will miss her and the stories she shared. Rest in peace, dear Patt,

Pat and I have corresponded via e-mail for several years and I knew she had some health issues, but the word of her passing has been a shock. She would have graduated with the class of '58 had she not been sent to a Catholic school in her junior year.

She stayed in touch with as many classmates as she could. I will miss her timely comments on the world around us.
