Mary Pauline Jaramillo, a beloved mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, passed away peacefully on April 23, 2026, in Colorado Springs, Colorado, at the age of 81. She was born on October 7, 1944, in Monte Vista, Colorado, to Edward Gutierrez and Maggie Cortez, who preceded her in death.

Pauline found joy in life’s simple pleasures. She loved playing bingo, fishing, and camping under the open sky. She was an avid fan of wrestling, especially WWE, and never missed an opportunity to watch her favorite matches. She also enjoyed visiting the casino, where she could relax, have fun, and share laughter with loved ones. Above all, Pauline cherished spending time with her family—those moments brought her the greatest happiness and fulfillment.

She is survived by her loving children, Ray Matthew Jaramillo and Carrieelee McCracken; her brothers, Robert (Betty) Gutierrez and Leroy (Belinda) Gutierrez; her four grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; and four great-great-grandchildren. Her legacy lives on through each of them, carried forward in the values, strength, and love she instilled.

Pauline was preceded in death by her parents, Edward and Maggie Gutierrez; her loving husband, Jose Leroy Jaramillo; her sisters, Dolores Gutierrez, Viola (Ike) Martinez, Luis (Neighbor) Jaramillo, and Lorraine Gutierrez; and her brothers, Gilbert (Josephine) Gutierrez, Oscar (Ciara) Gutierrez, and Jake (Lucille) Gutierrez.
