“ I miss you so much hito so I was going through my phone the other day erasing old numbers when suddenly I came to yours.....I couldn't bring myself to erase or delete it , My heart shattered into countless numbers of pieces did you hear it? It was so loud....even at the mention of your name I can't stop balling uncontrollably because I don't understand how someone could send you to heaven way before you were scheduled to arrive and walk away scott free.....? I keep thinking what is that individual going to say to God when he asks him why he took away one of his angels then I stopped and thought some more he's not gonna have to because he's going straight to hell as he should to suffer like he left your family to do it comforts me a little to know that he'll burn for all eternity I'm always wondering how long it takes for people to forget they're loved ones once they're gone but I want you to know I'll never forget you and your awesome personality contagious laugh and that heart of gold..I love and miss u rest in paradise and fly with the angels mijo 🙏
