“ When I married porfie's daughter Beatrice she was the first person to come and meet me . She was such a kind and sweet person always welcoming. When she would visit us she'd be up at 5 making tortillas and Chile. Best ever. She was all about family and every thanksgiving she will be remembered. ❤️🕉️🌀🖤🙏

“ I got to meet my first cousin, Porfie, for Easter Sunday 1973. My husband and I took my father and my mother to see my father's brother, Porfie's father in Sanford. I immediately felt like I had known her all my life, her personality the way of doing things around the kitchen while we were there, our thoughts, our laughter. It felt as if I was visiting myself. I immediately loved her and saw her a few times after that many years later. For a family reunion that she had some five to six years ago I got to meet most of my other cousins and many family members and her sons and her daughter's. She will truly be missed and always loved. RIP my wonderful loving sister.

“ I have so many memories of my aunt Porfie since I spent almost every summer in the valley growing up. Me and Levi were like brothers. One memory that sticks out most of all is when I worked at Coors for the summer I bought me a couple of Cavs and while I was feeding them in the morning before I left work my aunt would get up and make me breakfast at 4:30 in the morning. And while I was at work the Cavs needed to be fed at noon my aunt Porfie would do that for me. Thank you for always being there for me!

“ I will always remember Tia Porfie and Uncle Naldo. They always welcomed me in their home, not only me my brother as well. Tia Porfie made the best food ever and waking up in the morning to her breakfast and home made tortillas was the best. They always made me feel worthy, and most of all you could be yourself and they loved you no matter what. The jokes her and Uncle Naldo had were the best, but most of all the laughter. You always left their home with a full heart. Tia Porfie I love you and you will be missed dearly. Until we meet again Tia.

“ Growing up in California, I only had the pleasure of seeing my Grandma a handful of times but each time was a gift. It didn't matter how many years passed, grandma always made us feel loved and welcomed. I will always remember the comfort and warmth I felt watching her make tortillas. They really were the best. You will truly be missed Grandma, but I know you aren't alone on the other side. I love you forever.

“ I will always have fond memories of visiting both you and Uncle Naldo; your beloved red heeler was always there next to one of you, no matter what time of day I visited you always offered me something to eat and made me feel welcomed in your home anytime. I will always treasure having lunch with you and Uncle Naldo when I worked in La Jara. I loved your tortillas and your homemade stuffing, you will forever be missed ❤️
