“ My deepest sympathy to Uncle Robert in his family. I remember as a kid. Aunt Loyda was always all dolled up and you were always telling stories. God bless you all. Lot's of love to all of you and my second dad Richard.

*Love always,
Victoria and Family*

“ My deepest sympathy to your family. Getting to know Robert, Loyda and their families was one of the best things about living in Center. He was always quick to tease and make me laugh. Robert and Loyda were so good to my mom, for which I am forever grateful. Sincerely, Lana Reed

“ Robert had a kind heart that automatically drew me to him. Throughout the struggles that he had, he showed me that he was a fighter. I am going to miss him, but know that he is talking and singing and praising God with the voice he now has.
