“ On October 30th I was talking with my nephew, Payton Trujillo Smith, of how much I love and appreciate Rudy, as we walked down memory lane. I explained how he was always there, but especially after my Daddy passed away, to help my Mama, Tina, and look out for her. He made improvements to the house and made sure that everything was in working condition. Rudy always brought a smile to our faces and always held his own beautiful smile. He was a comedian, but full of genuine love, helpfulness and warmth. He is unforgettable and holds a special place in my heart. I'm thankful for my cousin Rudy. He is still a blessing, today. My prayers and love go out to all of the family. I wish you all comfort, wonderful memories, love, togetherness and peace. With love always, Angel Trujillo Starns
