“ Seth was such a good friend from the time we were tiny, running around town with all the Romeo kiddos & keeping bus rides interesting, to high school, hanging around school & with friends. Seth always amassed a group of buddies around him because he was persistently joking, laughing and kind to those around him. He was a constant smiling face and continued to be a caring friend long after school, making it a point to always stop and say hello anytime we crossed paths. He made a lasting imprint on my heart and I know many others, and we will all miss him dearly. All my thoughts & love with you, Cynthia, Abry & family.
