“ Sue, this is for you, although I know others will read it. You were an amazing grandmother to Christian! You were always so much a part of his life, and I am so thankful that you got to see him and his (pregnant) wife when you did. Baby Evelynne was born, and my heart breaks that you didn't get to see her in person, but I know you are shining down on them and giving her your love! I have always loved you, and we will miss you greatly! Hakuna Matata.....Christian wore out that video with you.....I can hear your laugh.....Rest in peace....and my heartfelt love to the family.

“ *My dear sweet Susie, my BFF for almost 60 years. We shared our clothes, sleep overs for years, and decades of phone conversations.
You were the sister I never that I will cherish till we see each other again. There were parties in the woods, school dances, and kept secrets we never shared with anyone else. We shared a love of our kids, grandkids, and crafty projects that we always had to many started. As the years passed, we never grew apart and always had each other in our hearts.
When I cry now, they are happy tears that there's no more pain in your sweet precious body. I always told you I loved you to the moon and back. I will still tell you that every night. Never a goodbye, but will see you when our time is right again. I love you sweet sister.*
