“ One of the first memories of Vic was wayyyyyy back, i was at my uncle's house for the day .. Ang and the kids lived on the other side of the block they drove by in the little white car they had at the time all i saw was a little guy with nothing but spiderman undies on hanging out the window as they drove by .. There are sooo many more memories with him but this one i will never forget ! I will always remember him that way .. The little wild child with the spidey undies

“ In just over 3 years that you have been in our family, there has been many memories of you Victor and none is more important than the other. I just wish you had more years to make so many more memories. How ever God has called you home so I know one day soon your loving soul will be back on this earth to bless more people with who you are.

T the family and friends left behind my heart goes out to you all and I want you to know how great it was to have Victor in our lives and family. Thank you and Prayers and love to you all
